

Filing bankruptcy on your own can be very risky. You might qualify for free legal help!

Stop by the

Pro Se Bankruptcy Clinic

2:00 PM to 4:00 PM

1st & 3rd Thursdays of the month

at the Federal Courthouse

700 Stewart Street

Seattle WA 98101

Room 6101 (6th Floor)

See other side for details

Can't make it to the clinic at those times?
Help is still available for those who qualify.
Call the Northwest Consumer Law Center's Intake Message Line at (206) 805-1722
to request a consultation.

How the Clinic works:

The clinic has experienced bankruptcy lawyers who can:

- look through your forms to catch things that may cause problems for your case
- help you fix problems in your forms and file amended (revised) ones
- step in to represent you in your case, including going with you to the Meeting of Creditors
- advise you in various bankruptcy-related issues

Who qualifies for the Clinic:

# of people in your household:	Total gross income (before taxes & expenses) of everybody in your household:*
1	Less than $23,760.00 per year
2	Less than $32,040.00 per year
3	Less than $40,320.00 per year
4	Less than $48,600.00 per year
5	Less than $56,880.00 per year
More than 5	Less than $8,320.00 more per year for each additional person

What if you do not qualify?

If your household income is too high or your case has problems that are too complex for the clinic to handle, we can offer a list of bankruptcy lawyers who are willing to consider working for a greatly reduced fee.

The Pro Se Bankruptcy Clinic is brought to you by:

in partnership with

* These numbers will change after 2016