

Filing bankruptcy on your own can be very risky. You might qualify for free legal help!

Stop by the

Pro Se* Bankruptcy Clinic

2:00 PM to 4:00 PM

1st & 3rd Thursdays of the month

at the

Federal Courthouse

700 Stewart Street

Seattle WA 98101

Room 6101 (6th Floor)

See other side for details

How the Clinic works:

The clinic has experienced bankruptcy lawyers who can:

- look through your forms to catch things that may cause problems for your case
- help you fix problems in your forms and file amended (revised) ones
- step in to represent you in your case, including going with you to the Meeting of Creditors
- advise you in various bankruptcy-related issues

Who qualifies for the Clinic:

| # of people in your household: | Total gross income (before taxes & expenses) of everybody in your household:* |
|---|--|
| 1 | Less than $24,120.00 per year |
| 2 | Less than $32,480.00 per year |
| 3 | Less than $40,840.00 per year |
| 4 | Less than $49,200.00 per year |
| 5 | Less than $57,560.00 per year |
| More than 5 | Less than $8,360.00 more per year for each additional person |

What if you do not qualify?

If your household income is too high or your case has problems that are too complex for the clinic to handle, we can offer a list of bankruptcy lawyers who are willing to consider working for a reduced fee.

The Pro Se Bankruptcy Clinic is brought to you by:

The Northwest
Consumer Law Center

www.nwclc.org

in partnership with

* These numbers will change after 2017